

What we need to celebrate the Mass

A group of Christians.

You are a Christian by your baptism.

A priest who makes Jesus present and acts in his name.

Books with prayers (the New Roman Missal and readings (the lectionary).

The altar is the table where the priest consecrates bread and wine.

Holy vessels
chalice ciborium paten

Two cruets,
or small glass
containers, one
full of water,
and the other
full of wine.

The lectern
is the place where the Word of God
is proclaimed
from a book called the lectionary.

Bread and wine

The Mass is the commemoration of what Jesus did during the Last Supper with his disciples, before he died. The bread is shaped like a small disk and is called a "host."
